Dear Darlene:

Thanks for the material regarding annexation #5-113-92, City of Vernonia. It certainly was different from the material recorded with the County Clerk.

While it did clarify things for me, I still question the Department's approval of Parcel 2, Page 2, Exhibit A. It does not appear to me that the legal description complies with the statutory requirements of ORS 308.225(2)(b). If it did, you would not have had any problems identifying that portion of tax lot 800, nor would you have improperly identified tax lot 703 as being a portion of the territory being annexed. (Is T.L. 703 being annexed by some other annexation that I am not aware of?)

It troubles me that you approved the legal description because you "... knew I was trying to describe tax lot 800..." and that "(w)ith the information available to me, there was no doubt what was being described".

The whole purpose of ORS 308.225 is to remove the guess work from a boundary change and to make the action certain and accurate for the public and posterity. Would someone fifty years from now "know" that tax lot 800 was being described and have the same "information available"?

Oregon Revised Statute 308.225(2)(b)(A) does not say "when available use deed lines, deed corners and other monuments to replace bearings and distances". It does however mandate you use them, when available, to supplement the mandated bearings and distances.

It is not that difficult nor expensive to accurately describe and make certain exactly what property is being annexed. The city and other taxing districts should be held accountable for proper and legal descriptions of areas to be annexed.

Sincerely,

Joseph Flori
Chief Cartographer

Darlene:

Thanks for the copies, information and maps regarding City of Vernonia. Ordinance #666 (Annexation) & DOR #5-113-92.

As discussed it certainly is different from the Ordinance as recorded by our County Clerk, and clears up somethings.

However, I still question DOR approval of Parcel 2, Page 2, Exhibit A.

As you pointed out "the only area of tax lot 800 with a Questionable Description". (See foot note*.) As is readily apparent, the description as submitted does not comply with the statutory requirement of ORS 308.225(2)(b). If it did you would have not had any problem identifying that portion of tax lot 800, nor would you have improperly identified tax lot 703 as being a portion of the territory annexed by this ordinance. (Providing T.L. 703 is not described by some other annexation that you have and I am not privy to.)

In Surveying & Cartography, I believe if you make an assumption, you make a mistake.

How was it "you knew you were trying to describe tax lot 800" (see foot note*). The whole purpose of ORS 308.225 is to remove the guess work from a boundary change and to make the action certain and accurate for the public and posterity, not "well I think what they meant was".

I am glad there was "no doubt what was being described". (See foot note*.) But you were wrong. In fact the 60' strip through tax lot 800 is not truly a parallel 60' strip because of deviations in curve data between the 3 related descriptions. To map out this boundary, specifically, with an automated mapping or CAD system would be a mess at best.

This is 1992 and the means are economically available to anyone who wants to, as statute mandates, accurately describe and make certain exactly what property is being subject to an action as important as this.

ORS 308.225 does not say "when available use deed lines, deed corners, and other monuments to replace bearings and distances". It does however mandate you use them, when available, to supplement the mandated bearings and distances....

Sincerely,

Joseph Flori
Chief Cartographer
